POSITION OVERVIEW: The United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas is recruiting for an Operations Support Specialist. The incumbent performs various functions and is responsible for maintaining and processing case information from opening to final disposition, in accordance with approved internal controls, procedures, and rules. The incumbent performs docketing, noticing, managing the progression of cases, maintaining official case records, monitoring the completion of required procedural steps, reviewing filed documents to determine conformity and taking appropriate action, ensuring all orders and automated entries are appropriately and accurately docketed, and making summary entries on the docket of all documents and proceedings. This position is temporary \(contingent upon funding\), and may not exceed one year and one day.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

1. Opens cases in the electronic case management system. Processes and creates new case files, and assigns case numbers to judges. Dockets initial opening events. Sorts, classifies, and files case records. Maintains the integrity of the filing system to insure the accurate and timely filing of documents.
2. Makes summary entries of all documents and proceedings on the docket in a team-based environment. This includes, but is not limited to, such items as complaints, petitions, indictments, pleadings, motions, responses, minutes, and orders.
3. Provides assistance to the general public, litigants, the bar, and a variety of customers at the intake counter. Collects fees and performs cashiering functions as assigned.
4. Reviews documents to determine compliance with federal and local rules and routes copies of documents to proper office(s)/person(s). Distributes orders, notices, and judgments when entered on the docket. Prepares and issues summons and warrants upon order of the court.

5. Ensures that statistical information is accurately reflected when a case is opened or closed and in various entries occurring throughout the pendency of an action. Assists in case management by ensuring the quality of all docket entries using the court's quality control program.

QUALIFICATIONS:

To qualify for the position of operations support specialist, the candidate should have two years of clerical or administrative experience. The candidate should also have experience successfully working in a team environment. Knowledge of legal terminology and procedure and experience handling sensitive material is preferred. The candidate should possess strong organizational, analytical, and verbal and written communication skills. Solid computer skills are required, including proficiency in the use of word processing software. High school diploma or equivalent is required, and a Bachelor's degree is preferred. Education above the high school level in accredited institutions may be substituted for general experience on the basis of one academic year equals one year of general experience.

BENEFITS:

Employees of the U.S. District Court are entitled to benefits, which include participation in the Federal Employees Retirement System, choice of a health benefit plan from several options, dental, life insurance, long term disability, long term care, annual/sick leave, federal holidays, and periodic salary increases. This position is subject to mandatory Electronic Funds Transfer for payment of net pay.

The final candidate will be subject to a background investigation by law enforcement agencies, which includes FBI fingerprinting and credit check. The applicant must be a United States citizen or provide documentation proving eligibility to work in the U.S.
